

Bijagós Archipelago: Guinea-Bissau's Natural Paradise

The Bijagós Archipelago is one of the most fascinating and least explored destinations in Africa. A natural paradise composed of 88 islands and islets off the coast of Guinea-Bissau.

This ensemble covers more than 2,000 square kilometres and is renowned for its unique biodiversity, stunning landscapes and rich cultural heritage.

Bijagó culture and heritage

Bijagó People

A community that has maintained ancestral traditions for centuries with a respectful worldview towards nature.

Ecosystem

The symbiotic relationship with its environment has allowed the preservation of practically intact ecosystems.

1

2

UNESCO Heritage

Declared a World Heritage Site in 1996 for its impressive biodiversity and intact ecosystem.

Biodiversity

It is home to an incredible diversity of marine species (turtles, dolphins) and terrestrial species (migratory birds, hippopotamuses).

Unique experiences in Bijagós

Bird watching

Enjoy birdwatching in pristine landscapes with unique species.

Sport fishing

Practise fishing in crystal clear waters rich in marine biodiversity.

Jungle trails

Explore the lush tropical vegetation, discovering local flora and fauna.

Cultural immersion

Learn about indigenous ethnic groups, their age-old customs and traditions.