

Bolama Island

Bolama Island is one of the most fascinating islands in Guinea-Bissau, located in the Biombo region. It is the second largest island in the country, with a rich history dating back to the Portuguese colonial era.

It was the former capital of Guinea-Bissau during Portuguese rule, which gives it a significant legacy.

Colonial Legacy

Historic architecture

The ruins of colonial buildings and the architecture of the city retain a nostalgic atmosphere.

Peaceful streets

Its peaceful streets and buildings show traces of the colonial era, offering a unique experience.

Temporal contrast

There is a certain charm that provides a contrast between the passage of time and the vibrant local life.

Life in Bolama

Different rhythm

Time flows at a different rhythm, and serenity invites you to immerse yourself in the local way of life.

History lesson

It offers a history lesson in every corner, transporting you to a bygone era.

Local community

A local community that lives in a peaceful and simple way.

Historic visit

An essential historic visit where the past and present coexist harmoniously.

