

Sport fishing in the Bijagós Islands

An unparalleled experience in rich waters and biodiversity. The archipelago offers unique challenges for anglers of all levels.

Abundant marine species

Giant Tarpon

Exciting challenges for experienced anglers.

Sharks

Catches that put your skills to the test.

Other Species

Jacks, sea trout, snappers and barracudas abound in these waters.

Fishing methods

1

Coastal trolling

Ideal for jacks, barracudas and snappers in waters near the islands.

2

Tarpon and shark fishing

From anchored boats. Requires patience and skill.

3

Spinning, popping and jigging

Perfect for large jacks over 20 kilos.

4

Bottom fishing with bait

A spectacle when you find schools of croakers.

Coastal trolling

Target Species

Jacks, barracudas and snappers are abundant in coastal waters.

Ideal Location

Waters near the islands offer perfect conditions.

Technique

Trolling lures from moving boats.

Big game fishing

Anchored Boats

Stable position to face large catches.

Reward

Memorable catches that challenge your limits.

Patience

Strategic wait to attract the tarpon.

Skill

Technique to face imposing sharks.

Advanced techniques

Spinning

Precise casting for active species.

---

Popping

Surface attraction for aggressive predators.

---

Jigging

Vertical movements for large carangids.

Strong currents and tides add difficulty but also excitement. Catches can exceed 20 kilograms.

Our fleet

5

Boats

Modern and safe vessels.

100HP

Power

Powerful engines for rapid movement.

100%

Experience

Extensive knowledge of local waters.

Unforgettable experience

Guaranteed Captures

We know the best places where the species abound.

Remote Areas

Access to the most exclusive points of the archipelago.

Professional Team

Expert guides for a tailored experience.